MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXALTED RULER, DONALD A HARRISON

October has arrived. The weather is getting more manageable, the RV park is filling, and an influx of visitors will present a different vibe in the lodge. As we embark into the holidays, there are many events planned.

October 11th, is the PER low country boil dinner, 12th is the members birthday dinner, if you have a birthday in October, dinner is free, and Sunday the 13th is the BLOE breakfast. Lodge Olympic will be on the 19th, as well as A Nightmare on Elk Street, a BLOE event. On the 26th we have Trunk or Treat as well as a hall rental.

November is active as well. On the 2nd, is an all-day hall rental benefiting pediatric cancer, the following week, the state president is in Sebring. The 10th is lady's breakfast, and, on the 16th, the Brandon Ladies have a sip and paint event followed by the members birthday dinner. Bunco is on the 18th, The MacDill Thanksgiving dinner (invitation only) is on the 21st. On the 23rd, the Hall will be used to present the Quilts of Valor to veterans followed by lodge game day starting at 4pm. We will finish the month off with a Thanksgiving dinner on Thanksgiving day.

December will close out the year strong. On the 1st, we will honor those members that have passed at the Annual Elks Memorial Service. On the 7th, Elvis visits and will entertain for hours followed by a Rock and Roll after party. The 8th is the second Sunday and is the BLOE breakfast. Christmas wrapping party to wrap the gifts for needy families is on the 11th. The 14th is a busy day. BLOE Christmas Tea at 11 a.m. and a Jr ROTC Christmas Ball at 6pm. Members Birthday dinner will be on the 16th, in the lounge. December 21st is a hall rental for AFGE. On the 28th, there is a birthday party in the hall and member's games at 4pm. We are looking to end the year with a New Years Celebration on the 31st. Our lodge does partake in many events and activities. The rental hall and RV park generate a significant amount of revenue to support the lodge and our charities. This is possible, because members provide the labor to generate the revenue. You are needed. 8 hours a month to assist in these events and activities. The lodge facilities are maintained by members, for the benefit of members. Please do what you can to convert your 8 hours into revenue for the lodge.

In closing, you can communicate your desire to take part in the above activities by emailing Elks2383sharing@yahoo.com.

Thank you,
Donald A. Harrison

WE ARE ELKS! WHAT DO WE DO? WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE. HOW? WE HELP, WE SHARE, WE ARE SEEN.

ELK OF THE MONTH

Elks volunteers are the breath, heart, and blood of any lodge. Our lodge simply will not function without members stepping up, filling a role, and bringing the pieces together.

This month's Elk member is a lady that is tireless in what she does. She oversees the veteran activities, stands the post at food and magazine drives, and oversees the grant programs, while serving as a member of our operational staff and Board of Directors, while working 50 hours a week at her jobs.

Thank you and congratulation to Robin Rutzke, ELK OF THE MONTH. When you see her, please thank her for all she is doing to include each member in all our events and programs.

BLOE BITS

Next Meeting is
OCTOBER 7TH @ 7:00 PM
 Hoping to See You There!

Once again, here I am. This has been a busy month and as it gets closer to the end of the year it seems to just get busier. We have had a couple of great events, and I am proud to say that they were very successful and FUN I might add. Both the fashion show (Beth Benham and crew) and Casino Night (Terri Ciesla and crew) worked very hard to make these turn out the way they did. Thank you, ladies, all for coming together and doing such a great job. Remember that the year is just getting started. We have a new member, Melinda Giffen Frater, putting on the Nightmare on Elk Street. She has her tickets at the bar to be sold and hopefully you all will grab a few more to bring your friends. As far as I can remember, this has always been a great event. This year will not disappoint, I am sure. We need people to bring a SCARY COVERED DISH and let her know what you plan on bringing. There will be music to dance to and a costume contest and much more. Let's show her how we all can help and make this scary night a BIG success as well. We also are selling raffle tickets for the Ultimate Tailgate Raffle. There are now tickets at the bar to be purchased and some of the BLOE members have some to sell. If you are wanting to sell some just let me know. This cooler is LOADED with lots of good stuff. The drawing will be December 1st and if there is stuff you don't want or like I am sure they will make great last-minute Christmas presents. Last month was also the FLOE meeting in Daytona. I went for the first time this year. We WON 1st place for the yearbook, and we WON 2nd place for the scrapbook. We have all worked very hard to get things accomplished, lets keep it going.

Brandon Ladies of Elks Lady of Distinction SEPTEMBER

The Brandon Ladies of Elks has several women that we rely on for certain job. They have proved time and time again that they are the best at what they do. Our September lady is one of those individuals. She is an expert at selling 50/50 raffle tickets. The jackpot is always very high and as a result it means greater income for us. She volunteers throughout the year and played a significant role in the recent fashion show. She modeled, helped with decorations and donated a basket for the raffle. She has been a member for many years and is always willing to step up and work at fund raisers and caterings. She has an infectious smile and even though she is small in stature she is full of energy and love for the Brandon Ladies. Please join me in congratulating Kathy Hatten our September 2024 Lady of Distinction.
